

Requirements to be a Camper at Cedarbrook

Physical Disabilities: Children with physical disabilities may attend camp if they are able to function within a normal camp setting with no special facilities.

Mental Disabilities: Children with mental disabilities may attend camp if they can function well in a group at their grade and age level.

Behavior Issues: Children may attend camp if they are able to function in a group setting without specialized adult support. There are no individual activities as our camp schedule is made up of small and large group activities.

If you have questions or concerns about whether any of the above apply to your child, please call or email to discuss this on an individual basis.
